

DESPITE the brave heroics of both the Bucks County Rugby XV and our county cricketers, pride of place in the review of 1974 must go to Wycombe Wanderers F.C. During the year they clinched the first ever Rothmans Isthmian League championship and last month reached the third round of the F.A. Cup for the first time in their 90 year history.

Wycombe's success last year was almost expected, for during the last six years they have consistently brought honours back to the town.

Bucks R.F.C.'s brave display in going down to Gloucestershire (10) in the County Championship quarter-final must rate as their best ever performance in the history of the club.

The county cricketers had a mammoth task facing them when they travelled down to Canterbury to face Kent in the Gillette Cup. But with John Turner hitting 88 they amassed a superb 223.5 and gave Kent plenty of choice before being topped up by seven wickets.

Other highlights of the year were Jackie Priest's excellent performance in becoming the undisputed 1974 U.K. champion in the minor girls cross-country while the same year saw the end of Erment Turners football and cricket clubs.

Here's a month by month summary of 1974 — a vintage year for local sport.

JANUARY

Bucks nearly came up as upset in the Rugby Union County Championship, quarter-final at Aylesbury, when they were only beaten 10-0 by a star-studded Gloucestershire side. On the squash scene, Bucks lost their first match of the season, going down 3-2 to Herts.

Wycombe Wanderers made a great start to the new year. They crashed Hovecroft 5-0 in the last Amateur Cup first round tie, then they beat Watlington 2-0 in the first round of the County Cup. In the FA Cup, they were drawn away to Watlington, whom they defeated 3-0. This was the time when Wanderers had few flows to a match, apart from club tugs.

Wanderers made history again when they played their first ever away match at Luton, on a Sunday, to the first three and three day week. As a treat for the 2,000 people who turned up for this first away match, Wanderers were given a special gift, a new kit. As also overcame Bracknell Town 4-1 in the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup, quarter-final. Central defender Keith Mead came on for Wycombe from Enfield.

Mr. Brian Turner, managing director of Erment Turners, announced that the first football club — members of the Helene League — would be disbanded at the end of the season. This decision came as a result of increasing finances and also a lack of players naturally working at the firm.

FEBRUARY

Wycombe Phoenix Harriers Athletic Club took the limelight this month as the first success came when the club beat the new Southern Counties Intermediate champions, but this feat was overshadowed by their minor girls' runner Jackie Priest. Jackie became the undisputed 1974 U.K. national cross-country champion when she won the minor girls' race at the women's national championships at Leicester.

Princess Robergh were stunned when they were asked by the Helene League to find football elsewhere at the end of the term because their facilities were not up to standard. Two Burnham players, Terry Walters and Mark Briers were sent off as the side slipped in a 2-1 home defeat by Watlington Town in the Helene League.

There were mixed fortunes for Wycombe Wanderers. An own goal by Keith Mead 10 minutes from time knocked them out of the Amateur Cup when they went down 2-1 to the first round at Wyke Spartans after another long fight up home. However, the 'Blues' were back in the FA Cup and Bucks kept their first round tie at Watlington 1-0. In the County Cup, they were drawn away to Watlington 1-0 in the first round of the County Cup and then they hammered Bromley 7-0 in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

Marlow R.F.C. went down 7-0 to Aylesbury in the final of the Bucks Rugby Knock-out Cup. But there was brighter news for the club, who played on a Sunday for the first time in their 100 year history and won 2-0 against Watlington Town in the Premier League. In the County Cup, they were drawn away to Watlington 1-0 in the first round of the County Cup and then they hammered Bromley 7-0 in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

MARCH

Gerrards Cross crashed to a 5-2 defeat against Kanto and so failed to avoid relegation from the Trunians South Hockey League. In the athletics world, Wycombe Phoenix Harriers ladies cross-country team claimed the Young Athletes Sunday League's major trophy as overall winners.

There were also closely fought matches. Bucks' squash team were narrowly beaten 3-1 by Norfolk and so slipped out of the semi-final of the Plate Event of the Inter-county championships. Knolls dominated to a 4-1 triumph over Chesham and then the Bucks were drawn away to Watlington 1-0 in the County Cup.

Wanderers suffered probably their worst month of the year in the FA Cup. After beating Clarendon 3-2, they lost their first match home to Watlington 2-0 in the first round of the County Cup.

APRIL

For the second successive year, Wycombe Wanderers lifted the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup, when they recorded a 3-1 success over Slough Town in the final at Watlington Town. Another pleasing point for Wanderers was the return of Keith Seale after a two-month lay-off because of damaged knee ligaments. He came on as substitute in the Premier Midweek Floodlight League match at home to Chesham United which finished 1-1.

Marlow stormed to victory in the Bucks County R.F.U. seven first at Beconsfield by beating Old Marlborough 18-14, after training by 10 points. A superb all-round performance saw High

Vanderers' F.A. Cup heroics the highlight of a memorable year

Wycombe R.F.C. notch their highest score for several years when they crushed University Yard 16-1.

Wycombe men's doubles team made one of the Wycombe Badminton League Division One title when they overpowered Wanderers 7-2. Fickwell Heath added another trophy to their list when their under 16 side defeated Totteridge Athletic 2-0 in the Wycombe Minor Football League Sunday Cup final.

MAY

A superb month for local sport was highlighted by Wanderers clinching the first ever Rothmans Isthmian League Division One when they played superbly to overcome Leighton Buzzard 3-0 at Loker Park. This was Wanderers' third championship in four years. The Blues also claimed the Premier Midweek Floodlight League, Section 'A' and then clinched an eventful month with a tour of Cyprus, where they recorded two victories and one defeat.

The cricket season could not have made a better start. David James hammered 101 for Beconsfield against Old Merchant Taylors and free scoring Will Slack struck a superb 139 s.e. for Fitch when they romped to a 2-1 triumph at home to Harrow Road Police. Mick Glover of Stokenchurch, finished with breathtaking figures of 9-1 in the side's 226 run massacre of Chesham. It was a sad month for High Wycombe C.C. however, who were down by three runs to Watlington and five in the National League Cup first round.

Alan Watson of Tylers Green secured the Wycombe Table Tennis League championship for the third year in succession when he defeated Don Berry of T. T. Wade. On the badminton scene, the Wanderers' doubles team, consisting of Keith Mead and John Turner, were crowned champions.

Wycombe Oakley completed a memorable feat when they swept to the men's double league Division at the title of the Oxon and Bucks Badminton League, without losing a game.

There was no 'story book' finish for Erment Turners when they played their last football match. They went down 5-0 to Clarendon. Holmer Green took the Wycombe League Senior Section title by beating Watlington 2-0 in the final.

Wycombe Wanderers decided to leave the P.M.F. and as a replacement will play more attractive fixtures. Peter Rogers, the former assistant manager with Reading, was appointed joint manager at Marlow with Dave Wigley, Charlton St. Peter also appointed a new lion when Derrick Jones was given the vacant position.

JULY

Wycombe Phoenix Harriers were eliminated from the British Athletics League "Pre Gold Cup" competition when they could only finish sixth out of eight teams in the semi-final. However, they were better news from the Harriers camp, in the form of June Long, who won the Southern Counties Intermediate women's 1000 metres hurdles at Crystal Palace.

Alan Dowdy set up a unique record when he took his 1,000th wicket for Erment Turners second XI against Leighton Buzzard 2-0. Dowdy achieved this feat in time as it was announced that the cricket club would be disbanded at the end of the season.

St. William Barrow School under 14 cricket team clinched the county competition for the Essex Cup Colts trophy by beating the Royal Grammar School by six wickets. Marlow Boys' Club failed to overcome Kent when John Turner hit a superb century in 35 minutes scoring 127 s.e.

Financial matters dominated Wycombe Wanderers proceedings during July. Firstly they received a cheque for £1,675.97 in the form of a loan from the County Council. The Wanderers' first round tie against Kent was a 3-0 triumph.
